LIVING IT OUT

Fortnight starting Sunday 1 November

This fortnight explores Luke 10 and how this chapter can empower us to start seeing people as Jesus does - so we can come alongside our neighbours and take the next step with them.

REFLECT

(1) After reading Jesus' story of the Good Samaritan in Luke 10, reflect on where you can see apathy for issues of justice in our society. What do you think is driving that indifference?

(2) Think of a time when loving someone you know came with significant cost (time, resources, emotional capacity, image). What motivated you? Was it worth it? What would it take to love someone you didn't know/didn't like in that same way?

(3) Jesus is our ultimate picture of justice, and He was always motivated by selfless love. We are inviting our church to take the next step to be renewed in the 'way we see our neighbour'. Have a go at the See think Feel activity. Consider how this can not just be a one-off thing, but how you can embed this into your everyday discipleship (e.g. commit to doing this when at the coffee shop or when on the train going to work).

Share your thoughts with one or two people who can keep you on track.

If you have any questions, please email us at care@grlc.org.au

PRAY

Fill me with gratitude for the cross. God, give me a fresh revelation of your heart so that I can know the depth of your love for me. Open the eyes of my heart to see, think and feel as You do.

PRACTICE

As disciples of Jesus, we shouldn't be content with spending our time just talking about justice. The practice of 'See Think Feel' is designed to help us to see more like Jesus sees, think more like Jesus thinks, and feel more like Jesus feels. Download the guide.
