

Colossians 3: Gospel Living

Malcolm Campbell

Watch:

- Click here for the sermon recording from of Sunday 30 January.

Read:

- Colossians 3:12-17

Think:

1. Read Colossians 1:15-23. What does this passage tell you about Jesus' behaviour on our behalf? How does this inform how we should live, especially if you compare this passage with Colossians 3:12-17.
2. Have you ever tried to seriously forgive someone who has wronged you in some way? Or have you ever tried to be compassionate, or kind, or patient? What was it like?
3. What could you do this week to help place you in a position to better experience, and be more aware of, God's action in your life - that is, His grace.

Do:

- An example of a practice you could try (see question 3, above) is the Examen Prayer. You can find more information here: <https://grlc.org.au/2020/10/08/daily-examen/>