

sharing.

You can do this as an individual, household, or small group, by hosting your own special event, or inviting someone into one.

Host a special event with your own personal twist

Ginger Bread House Party

We want to resource a simple activity you could do to invite your friends over. This is great for all ages, and we will provide a River Kids style video that will help prompt discussion to go beyond the shallow, and introduce Jesus and the real meaning of Christmas.

Please order your houses online by Fri 24 Nov and they are $32 a kit. Payment is on pick up at Life Centre on Sun 3 or Mon 4 Dec

Not keen on gingerbread houses or too expensive?

- Get your own gingerbread house from supermarkets ($10-20)
- Buy some Christmas craft packs from Kmart ($5-20)
- Christmas Games or trivia night
- Go Christmas light looking
- Christmas baking party
- Christmas Movie night
- Host a Life Care backpack party

Invite someone to one of your chirstmas events

It can be a busy time of year. So if hosting another event seems impossible, why not invite someone to join you in one of your events that are already planned. We often hear stories from church of how profoundly loved people feel being invited to someone's Christmas lunch when they have no where else to go. If you are interested in this but don't know who to invite, chat to Lara : lara@grlc.org.au